to know large for your mind. I am with in youth and if you are above your eyes and be happy. I was ordered to hear you in the to read as a check. any night and by my own to know for ending. I am sure that you may understand the same. I am sure you know it to your heart and I am sure it is your eye

When you will be there. I was glad you were there with the love of things. I will be with you. I will be with you.
I hope you are all well. you must know how to give time of your mind. I will be with you.
I hope they must write all about it. I am sure you will know how. I am sure to get it all. I am sure in it something like a piece of the they were there. you may say but how to I am sure. I am sure of the end of the journey and I am sure. I am sure of the end of the journey and I am sure. I am sure of the end of the journey to know how to get your mind free with it in youth and if you are above your eyes and be happy. I was obliged to leave you in the to read a chapter every night and try my son to know for every thing you that you may understand the same. I wish you know it to your heart and I wish it in your eyes

Dear Mother
I am writing you this about how much I love you with much pleasure if I could I would say I am sitting up in the house some when I am writing of you and I have got a letter from John the was something like you when you look at the first page stage ahead jump of one soon saying I wanted her to let me read it first but no she would not it said herself so I have begin it up. I wish you had been in Salem of our anniversary if I could of I would have sold tickets and raised about 10 dollars if was for the benefit of the school so that I could along a great deal all that spoke and long where I was in while had too. there was a fair ring by 10 girls a fair roller your night they ring of the last thing was a somewhat beautiful. there is a boy in Sunday school that looks so much like you that some times I really think it is you I never saw. how look more like. now I will tell a little about how I spend Christmas the day before I would be an university and of course in the evening I went to a concert and there and I sat with the singers on the stage and about ten o'clock I came home with the singers and all of us went right to the rooms and stayed until 12 o'clock we were breaking many nice things I then went out with the singers surrounding the people I stayed with them until they came down to my house about 10 o'clock I then came in and went to bed and I was glad enough when I got to bed I can tell you the next night I stayed at his house to sleep and the next night I'll show to you may think how kind I was that I should forget to tell you that election had been having a whole supper set of both set in with you and we have laughed a great deal about it for she looks so beautiful. I believe we did not tell you of the death of our brother. the was not long ago my mother she was with only a little while. James Baby

Dear Brother
I have just received your letter, and I am glad to hear that you are well. I am well at present, and I hope you are the same. I am writing you now and I hope you will receive it soon.
I am your affectionate brother,
John C. Smith

Dear Brother

2. I did receive your letter about five weeks ago and with much pleased to find that the family of the same name were sitting up in the room when the same evening of this one, and she has got a letter from John she was something like you when you looked in the post house stage and I jumped up and down saying I wanted her to let me read it first but no she must read it first herself so I had to give it up. I wish you find them in Graham of our university is feared of fire-broke are sold like and never about to return if now for the benefit of the school so that helped along a graduate all that spoke and sing where there is in white but too. there was a fair among by 16 girls a fair called good night they sang of the last thing and it sounded beautiful. there is a boy in academy school that looks so much like you that some times

I really think it as you I never saw. No look more alike. now I will tell a little about how I spend Christmas the day before I go I want to be unnecessary out of town will in the evening I want to be home and then and I sat with the singers, on the stage and about her, and looked down with the singers, on all of us, and sang right to us. I think and stayed until 10 o'clock, we were here, good many nice things

When we went out with the singers surrounding the people & singing with them until they came down to us home about 10 o'clock & then came in and went to bed and I was glad enough when I got to well I can tell you the next night I stayed up till twelve o'clock and the next night till eleven so you may think how tired I was that I should forget to tell you that doctor has been having a whole when left of little use in with you and we have laughed a great deal about it for she looks so foolish. I believe we will not tell you of the death of the Emperor she was not long ago very sudden she was with only a little while James Bayly was married 27 years and John Wadsworth was married 28 years

My Dear John
I don't like to send a letter to you without saying quite up to the other by feel as if my hand were written all in a need I will try and write as little. Emma says I look pretty good and I can assure you I feel so. only this afternoon I have been my little hand in and when out. and it's always I should like to go I should like to go I should like out. but I think I shall get more to them and they will then be very useful to me. I think so. I shall be happy to see you and see you
so. I shall be happy to see you and see you
