

Box 33 Bray Family Correspondence

1. "67 and still going strong" article celebrating Bray brothers 67th birthday in an envelope addressed to "The only, but justly celebrated Bray brother" postmarked May 26, 1930
2. Article from the San Jose News, October 22, 1976 on John Grandin Bray.
3. Newspaper article, not identified, hand written '1936' announcing the 'Bray Twins' retiring from the grain and bean business. Jan. 1 with history of their coming to California in 1849.
4. Letter to 'Julie' on her 16th birthday from her grandmother, dated December 8, 1880.
5. Obituary for Mrs. Nancy B. Moses, Emma Bray's mother's mother. April 17, 1883.
6. Letter to 'Grendin' from W.A. Bray, August 16, 1852.
7. Undated letter addressed to 'dearly loved friend,' unsigned, October 11, no year.
8. Letter written by N. B. Moses, unable to read to whom it was addressed, February 18, 1883.
9. San Jose News, November 18, 1964. Obituary for Charlotte Bray Atkinson.
10. Independent Journal (Marin Co.), July 24, 1956. Article on Howard Watson Bray on his 85th birthday.
11. Newspaper announcement of a reception given by Mrs. William Donald, Jr. and Mrs. Donald W. Schma in honor of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Bray Cohen. Newspaper and date not identified.
12. Map of Mt. View Cemetery showing location of Bray plot.
13. List of internments and map, Bray and A.H. Cohen families.
14. List of internments and map, Bray, Cohen, Gilliland, Reidenbach
15. Business stationery for Howard W. Bray Steel Products
16. Typed article submitted by Ken Gilliland for the VPCO newsletter, 1994 on the story of a bible belonging to the Moses Bray of the Cohen-Bray family. Inscribed Horatio Moses, 1818.
17. Sample of stationery, blank. Bray brothers, Shipping Merchants 200-202 Sacramento Street San Francisco Bean and Grain.
18. Letter describing the death of "Grandfather Bray's First Wife" Mary, July 16, 1854, aged 24 years. Obituary from newspaper enclosed.
19. "A transcontinental Trip in days of Gold" by Henri Coon, husband of Emma's Bray's sister. Photo of Watson Bray residence; five photocopied pages
20. Bray Brothers formal announcement of retirement: 1938
21. News article about R.A. Bray, age 72, announcing intention to marry Aileen Edwards, age 34