

Box 39 Newspaper clippings saved by family 1870's-1900's

1875

- New York Times, May 12, 1875

1884

- New York Times, Apr 20, 1884

1887

- Five issues of Judge; The Judge Publishing Company, Park Row, New York; published once a week;
Vol 12 Nos. 292,295,300,304, 311 featuring colored illustration on front cover and cartoon page on back cover.

1897

- "Famous Gold Fields of the world and the rushes they have caused" San Francisco Chronicle, Aug 1, 1897
- "A Marvelous Temple" Aug 4, 1897
- "Broke Deerfoot's Running Record" Aug, 11, 1897
- "All Hammer Throwing Records Smashed" Jul 22, 1897
- "Relations of the Mormons to California's Gold Discovery" Dec 19/1897
- "This man can run faster than a fleet horse" Mar 28, 1897
- "Krafts bump into the mark" (California's Tandem Teams) Aug 16, 1897
- "History of the American Navy" SF Chronicle, Dec 19, 1897

1898

- "Duels between feathered combatants" SF Chronicle, May 8, 1898
- Map of Manila Harbor and Subic Bay; SF Chronicle, Weds, Jul 20, 1898
- "Lick Observatory, Mount Hamilton: Report on Earthquake" 1898
- "Day's Bicycle Tour in Alameda and Contra Costa Counties" Aug 7, 1898
- "New Wheel Tour by Sea and through Mountains" Aug 21, 1898
- "The war and its results" SF Chronicle, Aug 13, 1898
- "The Oregon's big guns" SF Chronicle, Jun 1, 1898
- "Berkeley Boys smash records"
- "Wrecks in the American Navy" (loss of the Maine) Feb 19, 1898
- "Wonderful possibilities of a new wild olive" Call, Jan 30, 1898
- "McIlhenny slandered: Poor return for governor's acts to whalers" Argus, Aug 11, 1898
- "Kragness is a cycling wonder" SF Chronicle, Nov 14, 1898
- "Travels of the Oregon Salmon" SF Chronicle, Sep 9, 1898
- "Hol' dem Philippines" a poem
- A poem by a 14 yr old student at John Swett Grammar School on the battle of Manila Bay
- "Victory at Santiago Bay" a poem
- "Dewey's Great Victory"

- “Death of Capt Charles V Gridley who served with Rear Adm Dewey in Battle of Manila Bay”
- “Poker” a poem on the Spanish American War
- “American shipping in the Mediterranean”
- “Eucalyptus to prevent fever” thousands of trees to be planted in Cuba
- Map of Cuba showing surrendered territory, Jul 15, 1898
- Map showing voyage of the Maria Teresa from Santiago to its wreck on Cat Island, SF Chronicle, Nov 14, 1898
- Map showing field of operations before Santiago
- Map of Santiago Harbor
- Map of Cuba and Islands showing course of the Spanish fleet

1899

- “Rough riding in the Italian Army” SF Chronicle, Jan 29, 1899
- “Great Feat of a diver” SF Chronicle, Aug 20, 1899
- “Big Collection of Mammals” SF Chronicle, Aug 23, 1899
- “Charles Murphy, cyclist, rides a minute behind a train” SF Chronicle, Jun 21, 1899
- “McFarland Victorious” SF Chronicle, Feb 23, 1899

1900

- “Fight for Ward Building still undecided” Daily Review, Sep 15, 1900
- “The Millennium” a poem

No Date- presumed prior to 1950

- “Ensign of Paul Jones Flagship, a relic of the Bon Homme Richard” presented to the government for permanent exhibition
- “Tricks of the Gold Miner”
- “Something like this may come from the Klondike”
- “To keep eggs for winter use”
- “A few gems”
- “Canaries and Parrots in German forests”
- “Jest for Christmas” a poem by Eugene Field
- “Her wild flowers”
- “Palawan, the Island that Germany is said to want”
- “The Onion’s Virtues”
- “Nautical term much in evidence now”
- “Roll call” a poem
- “The Treaty Ribbon” “Coal used by Romans”
- Map of the proposed route of Pacific Cable Company’s line
- “Coffee and its uses”
- “Cordang-A world beater-wheels over 600 miles in twenty four hours”

- "The Soldiers" a poem
- "Interesting Illusions which you see and don't"
- "Commemorating the Brooklyn's Arrival" [arrival of Mormon pioneers and Sam Brannon]
- "Susan Simpson" a poem
- "Simple tricks in Magic"
- "Freeze, freeze, thou bitter sky" and "Blow, blow, thou Winter Wind"
- "Truthful James and the Klondiker" by Bret Harte
- "New Railroad Record"
- "The quickest horses working in the Fire Dept in Kansas City"
- "A very quiet Christmas"
- "U.S. spells us"
- "The mile on many countries"
- "New Inventions wanted"
- "Law protecting Arbutus"
- "An interesting illusion"
- "Sharp Italian Police"
- "Irregular winters kill insects"
- "Promises of a Weather Prophet" Weather predictions with handwritten changes noted when the prediction changed
- "Guerre a mort" a poem
- "Whales in no danger: The stories of famine at Pt Barrow not true"
- "The low-backed car" a poem
- "St Patrick's Day and the Irish"
- "Tommy and the school question" a poem
- "Freaks of figures"
- "Pro Patria" a poem
- "His Christmas dinner"
- "Strength of steel"
- "Nature protects the Doe"
- "A visit from Santa Claus" by Clement Moore
- "Her papa" a poem
- "Stamps and medals for the Omaha fair" describes stamps to honor the Trans Mississippi and International Exhibition
- "The lesson of barbed wire" a poem
- "Tinkler a great runner"
- "The letter M in war"
- "The successful suitor" a poem
- "His letter to Santa Claus" a poem
- "English partridges wanted: Likely to be introduced into Oregon next spring"

- “Gave the South a Daisy” refers to seeds brought by the Union Army
- “Shiftless Negroes made industrious by oxen”
- “Behold we have gathered together our battleships” a poem
- Map of Honolulu
- “The Story of Old Glory”
- “Largest family on record” story of Scottish weaver and wife who were parents to 62 children”

1988

- Funeral Notices: Emelita Cohen, SF Chronicle Nov 30, 1988

1997

- Photograph from 1870 showing laying of gas lines in Oakland
- “Owning a piece of history-Gothic Revival” by Mark P Wilson, The Montclarion, Jun 27, 1997
- “Following their dream- Kay Gilliland and Rhea Babbitt built their own home” Montclarion, Sep 12, 1997
- “Going online i 1884” photograph of woman telephone operator, Jun 24, 1997

Cataloged by Kate McAnaney 8/2024