RIDGEWOOD.

Bergen County, N. J.

A village on the Erie Railroad, distant 22 miles from New York. The village of Ridgewood contains a population of about 6,000. Its location is most beautiful and healthful, its streets are artistically laid out and macadamized. Ridgewood is widely known for its beautiful homes, mostly all of which are handsomely and artistically constructed. The place contains one of the finest public schools in the State, ten churches, one bank, one Trust Company, an opera house, two newspapers, three floral nurseries, two Loan Associations, well managed; real estate agencies, two large lumber yards, fine drug stores. The village is well provided with retail stores of all kinds. The
