RIDGEWOOD

A village on the Erie Railroad, distant 22 miles from New York. The village of Ridgewood contains a population of about 6,000. Its location is most beautiful and healthful, its streets are artistically laid out and macadamized. Ridgewood is widely known for its beautiful homes, mostly all of which are handsomely and artistically constructed. The place contains one of the finest public schools in the State, ten churches, one bank, one Trust Company, two opera houses, two newspapers, three floral nurseries, three Loan Associations, well managed; real estate agencies, large lumber yard and fine drug stores. The village is well provided with retail stores of all kinds. The business men and citizens are very enterprising and always ready to do their part to promote the interest of their beautiful village.
