WARWICK DIRECTORY.

The village was incorporated in 1867 and is a thoroughly enterprising town, possessing beautiful streets, numerous fine residences, brick business blocks, two banks, fine churches and schools, and good hotels. The L. & H. R. Ry. company shops are located here, as are also the Fabric Hose Company and other smaller factories, giving employment to a number of mechanics. The village is supplied by a reservoir of the best of spring water, and is guarded by a first-class fire department. The general offices of the Lehigh and Hudson River Railway are located here
