

New-York Tribune.

New York, July 19, 1867.

Dear Sir:

Dr. R. H. Goodell is a candidate for Assistant Commissioner of Drugs.

I may have written for some time else; but, in any case, I desire to say that I consider Dr. Goodell well qualified, and worthy of the position, and that his appointment would eminently be conducive to the good of the service. Yours,

Harace Greeley
