

Fort George May 27th 1776

Sir

I cannot send on the provisions for want of men.
Capt. Vanick informs me that none can be spared from Albany. The provision Guard at Half moon must be sent me, so much that from Still water, and Fort Miller leaving at each of these posts no more men than are sufficient to man the Batteries, - what is become of Capt Wright and his company,

I have written to Capt Vanick to wish the ~~Batteries~~ ^{men} ~~from~~ assist him all you can
