

Ansonia February 23rd 1790

The Honourable Pierre Van Cortlandt Esq^r

Your Honour will remember that in the year 1782 there was a plate tax in which your honour was taxed for one Negro man three Negro women one watch 800^{oz} of plate amounting to £2-2-4 and also a tax for 1000^{oz} of plat at a threefold rate which amounted to £25-0-0 in the whole amounting to £27-2-4 the one moiety was paid at the time the law required and the other moiety I have been called on by the Treasurer for and settled the same in full and am indebted to the Society to apply to your honour for the balance which nothing but my necessities & circumstances would induce me to do fully persuaded that your honour will discharge the demand by the bearer Colley Chamberlain Esq^r I remain your Honours - - Most Obediant and Humble Servt
