

Dear Em -

I send Mr. Hoffman
my accordion, he promised If I lent it to him, that he would learn to play a tune on it. I have not seen you since my soiree.

I am very much afraid these parties will be the ruin of me. I am engaged this eve^g. and to morrow eve^g. and then I intend to stay at home and ally couche à bonne heure, for I shall lose my red cheeks. Come and see me soon Yours. Mary.
