N. Y. Oct. 7. 1836.

Dear Sir

I enclose you the call of our congregation, (made out since our interview,) as I may not have the pleasure of an Opportunity of delivering it in person. Since making it out I have not been able to meet with our colleague, Mr. Hall, who is in attendance at the convention, but engaged a part of the time in other business in the city. —

Yours truly
David Hudson

Rev. P. P. Irving

P.S. Since writing this I have met Mr. Hall and have opened it to give him an opportunity of signing the enclosed
