

Dr Theodoros

Beckmans Mills Sep^r 18th 1801

We Intend for home to morrow. And if you have not sent the Articles you took a memorandum of you will Please to send them by one of the Beck's Mill Vessels And let me know what you think I may give for Wheat and Rye here as it now begins to come to market in small parcels, you can send one piece of such bag stuff as will be fit to put buckwheat flour in And if it will answer I would rather put the buckwheat flour in such bags than in barrels, you will also send me my acct^t Currant so that I may know what ballance there is in your hands and Regulate accordingly -

I shall write you as soon as I get home and know how it is with grinding. So that you may Judge therefrom.

Tuesday Morning, Sep^r 22nd -

We came home Saturday last and dined at Croton's all friends were well there, John Spoke's wife says very ill with the fever, so that he cannot attend the mill for first Even if there was water; the Creek is now very low -

Mr Rensselaer went home yesterday they were well you will try and get me a barrel of good Solt I had Mr Beckman's Boatman knows where they may be had. They are wanted here -

As I am anxious to know about the Law Sute with Coll Beckman's heirs Please to put your brother Cortlandt in mind hereof. We all here join in Love to you and him And am your Affectionate
