

Cous Theodoros

John Spoke sends you also a Letter and what he writes you, will attend to. the Branding Iron is not come Nor the packing Cloth. When you send anything up give a particular Charge to the boatman about it so that there can be no disapoint Send the five for the Screen up it will be of Service in the Mill if the Small ^{Sebel} could attend it would save a great deal of sewing. which must depend on the wind and tide

There is no want of Barrats, James Haines has got part of the Slave &c. I gave him 100 dollars and the General assisted him with the Remainder. Let me hear from you how my Flour sold if it is ^{or not} ask cost if Current. We are all well here and hope to hear the same from you and Cous Am Your loving Grandfather
