

Dear Theodorus

I Received the Several Articles you Sent by Capt Conklyn all in good and now send by him Eight barrals of Rye flour which you will take charge of and sell for my acc^t and pay the fract thereof and pay Cap^t Conklyn ^{also} for One barral of Rhode Island Lime which he has Delivered me and I have not paid him for it

Please to send your G. manna Two pieces of the same sort of Cloth for bags as you sent He thinks it will do for the use for which it is wanted. It is now a Verry dry time the Mills can scarcely turn; and full of Country work so that at present no grinding can be done, Only for the Country Customers.

We all join in Love to you and Your bro^r.
J^ohⁿ W^hell Tell him I am Anxious to have the Law suits go on and he can tell Mr Munroe to take what Council he Chuses and I will pay the Cost, The Chancellor is now in Town.

Am Yours to serve
