

New York, April 9th 1848

My dear Sir

Mr. Kimble informs me that you are to draw out the papers requisite to my arrangement with the Rail Road Commissioners and wishes me to let you know whether there are any incumbrances on any part of the property. There are none. If any other information is wanting I will thank you to drop a line to me at No 90 Eighth Street New York

Very truly yours
