

Sir By the late law of Congress I find it is necessary for the Marshal to Appoint a Person in each of the Counties of the State to take the next Census, not having appointed ^a Person for the County of Westchester I have taken the liberty of calling on you to recommend a person in your County who you may be of opinion is qualified to take the Census; The law allows one Dollar a hundred; to begin on the 1st Monday in August next, and makes it the duty to call personally at every house and to enquire of the heads of Families the number of Person in each house; the persons appointed will be furnished by me with law and instructions how to act

I am with due respect yours
