Dear Sir

I imagine to myself that I see the General but without his Regiments. Enacting Laws in every point of view promoting the Welfare of his Country - but scold a great deal at Madison - I will arrest his Attention by Inclosing The Governors Speech. I hope it will prove acceptable - General V. Rensselaer returned home last week the most numerous procession met him. of Infantry Carriages of all sizes from the Chain & single waggon - to the coaches and a numerous body of ~~Infantry~~ Cavalry among whom were your aid - John T. Cooper - with his forces - at a Caucus. of the republicans 32 were for voting for the Presidential Electors - on the plan pursued at the last Presidential Election 36 were for opposed & determined to have a General ticket the parties are at issue the minority propose to relax but the Majority are determined to have all the votes for Mr Clinton -
