My dear Georgina

You have not had a letter from me & I have received two notes from you: I have written to Philip & Lornia & now a word to you - One last
- night from to-morrow & I shall be in the great Steamer American that is to bring us all home - Your Grand Papa is not very well he has a cold, I is very home sick for Kevin, Annie & Lornia is pretty & we have all been travelling since last Saturday, when we left London, every day I see a great deal, which I shall tell you about - Give my love to every one in 13 Tisbury St - I have only three minutes I must write one word to Uncle - Dearest Georgy I send you a kiss (O) Thine A. A. Angell -

They say I have a little more time. I saw a toy in Paris that was very funny. It was the monkeys concert. They were all dressed like ladies & gentlemen & they played on different instruments. I opened & I shook their eyes & bowed their heads & stamped their feet - how much do you think they asked for the $200.!! — And is funny? - do you play a great deal I have fun?

When I come home. I shall have you & love to jump upon my bed in the morning — Good bye. I hope Alice is well.
