

Son Philip Wednesday Evening October 14th 1790

I gave Gilbert a Letter which Mr^s Montgomery wrote to me about Mr^s Beckman's Furniture which she says you had offered her In part of a bond which she has again^s you which was given to her Husband. wherein The desire of me to know the price of Mr^s Beckman's Carpet & China which she wants -

What have I to do Either ^{with} Mr^s Beckman's Carpet or China or any thing Else I know nothing of it. pray send her ^{Mr^s Montgomery} your Answer, or let me have her Letter so as to answer it. I ~~would~~ have nothing to do with her Or any of her Connections, What does she mean by writing to me about what does ^{not} concern me. Pray let me have her Letter ^{again} which will oblige you & to love

Beverly & Co. Merchants

[Faint, mostly illegible handwritten text in a cursive script, likely from the 17th or 18th century. The text is written on aged, stained paper with visible fold lines.]

[Faint, mostly illegible handwritten text in a cursive script, continuing from the left page. The text is written on aged, stained paper with visible fold lines and some large water stains.]

Coll Philip V. Cortlandt
Camp
Van Plank's Point

Philip V. Cortlandt, Esq.
Oct. 14 - 1702
Residing at Monticeny