Dear Mama

We arrived here Tuesday evening or rather morning for it was some o'clocks we left New York on Monday at five o'clock with the Steam boat Macdonough and arrived at Saybrook a little before sunrise when we took the Steam boat Matilda to New London and arrived there to breakfast We was all day and till eleven o'clock at night crossing to Saybrook which was very tedious we found them all very well here, I went to the beach yesterday afternoon and went to church last evening there has been a very great revival of religion here Mary Dayton is one of the new converts, - I called at Uncle Nathaniel's this morning Miss Belton is staying there yet. Aunt Eliza does not appear to be reconciled to Casthampton - I saw Samuel Gardiner this morning he said that Uncle Samuel is a going to New-York to morrow but Aunt Mary does not accompany him, - Where by you intend sending Eliza & Ann to school tell Eliza and Catherine they must write to me for that it is very well give my love to all the family write me soon

Your affectionate Daughter
