

No. 37 Liberty Street,

New York, July 1st, 1898.

Wm. H. Mersereau, Esq.,

New York.

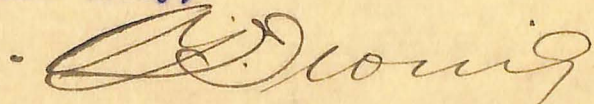

Dear Sir:-

I am in receipt of your favor of 30th June and regret to hear of your accident. The work at Barn which was pushed at first, seems now to be dragging, I do not know why.

I am sorry to say that I am forced to confirm my statement that I do not wish photographs taken at all of the new part of house, either inside or ~~out~~, the circumstances in this case are peculiar and out of the ordinary and I want no more publication concerning the new house, which is not a subject of public interest; you are at liberty to take pictures of the outside of old house. I will be pleased to have you take Mrs. Mersereau up to see the house at any time, we do not all go away, so that someone is always in the house.

I will be glad to have repairs needed to doors, windows etc. in Tower bath rooms made at any time now - Do I have to pay for these changes?

Yours truly,

No. 37 Liberty Street,
New York, July 1st, 1888.

Wm. H. Mercey, Esq.,
New York.

Dear Sir:-

I am in receipt of your favor of 30th June and regret to hear of your accident. The work at Barn which was pushed at first, seems now to be dragging, I do not know why.

I am sorry to say that I am forced to confirm my statement that I do not wish photographs taken at all of the new part of house, either inside or out, the circumstances in this case are peculiar and out of the ordinary and I want no more publication concerning the new house, which is not a subject of public interest; you are at liberty to take pictures of the outside of old house. I will be pleased to have you take Mrs. Mercey up to see the house at any time, we do not all go away, so that someone is always in the house.

I will be glad to have repairs needed to doors, windows etc. in Tower bath rooms made at any time now - Do I have to pay for these changes?

Yours truly,

