

HEADQUARTERS ARMY OF THE UNITED STATES.
WASHINGTON, D.C.

Arch. 29. '88.

Messrs Charles L. Webster & Co.

No 3 E. 14th St.

New York.

Dear Sirs:

I send you to day three maps which makes the number to be inserted in the Memoirs complete. They are, one of the Shenandoah Valley, one of the ^{battle of} Sailors Creek, and one of that part of Europe in which the operation of the Franco-German war of 1870, took place.

With them I also send a picture of Mrs Bonval - -nee Miss Rebecca M. Wright - whose portrait is to go in the Second volume. Please have this picture engraved in same style as the others.

All of the maps and illustrations for the book will be in your hands with these. The manuscript of the Second volume is done and about four hundred pages of it corrected and ready for the printer. It will all be in your hands at an early date.

Please inform me how Mr Webster is. Very truly yours,
O. B. Heinecan
Lieut General
