

Wm Miller

Albany Feb 16-1820

I did not arrive here until $\frac{1}{2}$ past 10 O'clock on Thursday when the procession for the funeral of God's Chosen began to move, I regretted it extremely - I send you the Signs of the Times containing all the particulars, This Country could not have lost so great a Man -

Mr Stevenson will take Red Gauntlet, and I have promised to send him up the last of March so that it will be necessary to get him in order by that time -

If my Brother sends up for the Wagon, You must let the Car
