"Marshal's" Office

Nashville, Aug. 27, 1852.

Sir

The enclosed account for stationary bought and used by me in taking and superintending the taking of the Census for 1850, has been referred by the Comptroller's Office to you or the Superintendent of the Census for payment - having been first embraced in my account current as Marshal &c. with the Treasury Department. I would thank you very much to give it a moment's attention and have the bill in some way paid and passed to my credit.

Your attention will very much oblige
