

Dear Irving

In writing You this morning I omitted to state that Captain Sturgis of the Sartar had placed on board the May Froger at which came out in the Sunday, now at Linton.
as I have not seen any letters to your address I presume that Macourey has taken care of any that may have come by the late arrival and no doubt will forward them to you I have had the pleasure to hear of my Sisters safe arrival at Broad Allyn, in good health

Yours Truly
