

Albany June 25. 1845
but

I wrote you by the last and that Mrs Van Cortlandt. Her chest continued very painful, yesterday it was so extremely painful that the Doctor opened it, she is more free from pain now but yet at times it is great & is very weak, she will not be able to leave home this week, and will write you by every mail how she is and I hope by the next will be able to fix the time when Mr McCoy can come up for us, that is if he will be able to come, I was to write you by this mail however Billy can let him know the contents of this which will answer as well — Mrs. Cortlandt as usual send her love to you & the Family
mine grows finely —

Yours friend
Pierre Van Cortlandt

[Faint handwritten text, possibly "Dr. Wm. ..."]

Carotenoid from the liver

from the same source.

... 10 ...

principles that the second of the is order

For from the fact that the

It is very much to be regretted that the

... and will write you by ...

every one has the same

1871

20. 11. 12

Handwritten text, likely bleed-through from the reverse side of the page, is visible at the bottom of the page.

... ..

... ..

— 22 —