1844
Dear Sir

I have returned your favor the Books of the Society are in the hands of E. P. Mancellin. on which the accounts and transactions with your brother are recorded I spoke to Mr. Mancellin and he said he will get the Books from Charles Chuter the former Secretary and I will then examine them as what is necessary as far as is in my power. I will call on Mr. Jordan I see what is wanted. we yesterday named Gen. Lewis President of the Society I was in hopes to have met you at the Faneuil.

Sincerely Yours
Anthony Lamb
