MORTON HAVENS,
ANTIQUE BOOKS AND GOODS.

ALBANY, N. Y., Aug. 27/04

Jos. F. Satin. Esq

Dear Sir

Herewith the "Irving Last Letter", as per your request.

I feel as if this is a very small price for this Letter. And I can only say that if this is really the Last Letter of Irving, and I believe it is, that you would be very unwise to sell it for any such price as you speak of. I would not sell it over again for twice the price I get for it.

But, offers when once made, I believe should be respected.

I will now say, that I will give you $20. for it.

Truly yours
Morton Havens

Dear Sir

Inclosed the "Young Heart Letter"
as per your request.

I feel as if this is a very great favor for this Letter. Our children only Boy that is thin is really sick. Each Letter of Young, and I believe if so, that you would be [illegible] people there as you are aware of. Would not ask it for myself. There is the Point I dislike it.

But if the Letter does Good,
I think Young should be benefited.
I hope you enjoy that Little Spree
You had. Give it to Hell for
