

Random soiled copy of Schedule. it is the last one I have.

March 21st 78.

My dear Sir.

Your letter received - I think the "Schedule" sent herewith, will answer some of the questions. - I am copying the groups of the Mantels purchased by you. - But, had I not been entitled to any commission under same, yet I certainly would have been - having ~~as~~ audited the bills, and been consulted frequently about the Mantels, & about the bill about the change of Billiard Room, about the removal of the Mantel from your room to the Billiard Room. - (which I made a special trip to ascertain for.) which I took charge of at your request. - When the bill came in I deducted the item I think (please refer to London and copy of volume. It is the last one I have.

March 21st.

My dear Sir,
Your letter received - I think the Schedule sent herewith will answer some of the questions. - I am copying the program of the meetings arranged by you. - I have had I not been entitled to any compensation upon these, but I certainly should have been - I have been assisted the bills, and been appointed to assist in the meetings. I should like to see the about the change of British Room. I think the number of the Budget from your room to the British Room. - I wish to see a special trip to the British Room. I wish to see a change of at your house. - I think the bill came in I should like to see the bill in the room (please refer to
