My Dear Child

The occupants on the Land at Haverock, last week sent deputies with full powers for them to negotiate relative to the little money compensation to be made to us. If the little should be in us Gen^l Hamilton, Mr. Hays, Mr. Benson and myself had a consultation on the subject. and it was determined that we should acquiesce in the proposition of the deputies which was that the little and quantum of compensation should be submitted to Arbitration. The Council of the opponents informed that there would be little opposition to our letter.

The Arbitrators agreed upon are Judge Thompson of the Supreme Court Cole: Robert Trench of N. York and Mr. Jonas Platt of Whitesboro, in the discretion of these Gentlemen we all have full Confidence.

General Hamilton & Mr. Jacob B. Hoffman are to draw the Articles of Submission, but previous to which the General requested information on several points, I have accordingly written to Cole. Henry J. Thompson and Mr. Jacob B. Van Kenselaer to come up without delay, and to bring with them every paper relative to the estate, I intend you also to come up and to bring with you every paper relative to the estate.

Gray Ship at Claverack, and I have been penitents have not left us for this place, hope them not to delay, and not to admit bringing every paper. ~~My dear General~~

~~My dear General~~ Your mama who left New York on Sunday last arrived on Friday morning and yesterday she and your sister Catherine went to Penitents Let Sally and the children participate with you in my love, I hope they are all well

I am very dear child

Your affectionate parent
