

My dear Emma

I am sorry to leave town without seeing you again, but "it is so to be" and we must submit. I have not been well at all for two days but feel better this evening and if it does not rain shall go in the morning. I will write to you as soon as I can & give an account of myself. I must go to bed now for it is rather late and I must be up early. So good bye and although I have not been up to see you of late as much as you wish believe me as I am your sincere friend
