

River one west which touched Hudsons River four miles to the south of the place where we began to run the back line of twenty miles to Connecticut line so that upon the construction of Philipps running East to Brunswick River leaves a Gore of the North River of four miles to the North of this Gore ~~which is the same~~, & as the Court and proportion is to run due East along Philipps the Gore must of consequence belong to the Manor of Cortlandt (the Dutch people possess it)
