

Dr Tom Gilbert

As I shall leave this place this after noon, I would have you do the several things I mentioned to you yesterday to wit,

Pay Doctor Cochran £87. for the daughters of Mr. Johnsons Family, And William Terrol, it being their proportion of the money that was divided at Ninebeck between the Heirs of Aunt Beckman; Pay also £16- to Doc^r. Cochran for James - Parkers, 2 god children, it be a Legacie Left by Aunt Beckman. to each god Child that shall prove it from the Church, however take the doc^r.
Receipts for it. You must go to Alderman Lott, and get the Jackets &c^r. which I paid him for. he or Mr^r. Lott will put them up if they are not, and send them to Major Billins to be sent up with my Trunk, the trunk I sent there this morning What other matters you think of to send up, when the Trunk is sent you will do - am &c^r
