

New York, Sept. 23^d, 1869.

Dear Sir,

I regret I did not see you to-day, when in town. I wrote Mr Thomas your ~~very~~ ^{copy} that the paper he mentioned would answer, if it was what is called good retree, of ~~the~~ ^{which}, of course, he must be the judge; and mentioned to him to send the names, if he did send. I know no other course to pursue respecting paper for the second edition except taking the 10 cents that one made, and taking the residue of the other quality, ^{that is, the 1/2 dollar paper}, for as far as I can as-ertain, there is none more suitable to be had. Please to let me know if that will answer.

Yours respectfully,

C. Van Hook

It seems, if he did say. I have no other the judge; and mentioning to him the in fact. Please to let me know if that will satisfy you. There is more than one mistake in the quality of the paper.
