

Mr Wm. Miller

Albany May 17 - 1828

After I arrived here I concluded to go no farther, & expect to return home on Wednesday, that is leave here on Wednesday & be home on Thursday - Charles Munde did not take the Boards, altho he promised Mr Hart to do it. He has disappointed me twice - & I find there is no dependance on him - Old Waters will come up at any time when he is at home I wish you would see him & get him to come up. He must enquire for Mr Herman V. Hart who has my Letter what to send - He will know where to find Mr Hart by enquiring of Godfrey & Walsh in State Street, he had better not to come to the Dock until he knows where to take in his Load -

Charles Walsh is going to New York & has promised to send this Letter on shore at Cobswells -
