

Levon. April 2^d. 1892

My dear Reed,

In a quieting hour I sat off with Mr Van Ness for France. I have barely time to pen to tell you adieu, and wish you all people happiness to you & yours.

I send you the vol of Exner antiquities, which I have just laid my hands on - also a ~~copy~~ set of Knechtelboken which I believe you have not in your library and which I beg you to keep in memory of the author - with kindest remembrance to Mrs Reed & myself.

Yours friend

Washington Irving.
