

Philad. 29 August 1818

Dear Sir

I paid the first draft for $500 & the second is due 8/11th Sep. which I must beg the favor of you to renew for 60 days. I should not have asked this favor of you had there not been an immense press for money in this city just now. None of our Banks are discounting - on the contrary, they are all contracting, and the want of money is universal among the Trading part of the community. From the situation of Mr. Irving & myself, I will guarantee to you that no blame shall accrue from this arrangement, and therefore trust you will not hesitate to comply with my request. I will send you my note with the interest added in receipt of draft for this amount.

I am with esteem &
respect

Yours truly
W. H. Holmes
