

Mr James Mandiville

I have understood that my Negro man Ismael is one of the Fiddlers that frequent your house at frolicking Times

I shall take it kind if for time to come you will not Countenance his being there at any Rate as I do intend hereafter to prosecute any person that Encourage, or suffer him to play the fiddle at Night in their houses. am your Very hum

Jan 5-1799

Thos Berre van Corlandt

Mr James Mandville
at Peck's Hill

Don't hang up
at Peck's Hill