

Dr Cortlandt & O Wm^{rs} ⁱⁿ

I have understood that by a law of the Corporation several Streets have lately been paved; Among which are the Streets fronting four of my Lots in the lowerly; adjoining the Land sold; Stephen D Beckman paid the last Tax, and I suppose he is noted as such

I would desire you to Enquire who are the Commissioners or the Overseers of the paving business in the City and get the account of the cost and send it me so that I may order payment or probably the Lots may be advertised agreeable to the Law of the Corporation which I should not like I have given the Lots to your Mother and Sisters and will order to put them in ^{fence} as soon as is convenient I hope you are returned from your Mission in health and shall be glad to hear from ^{you} am with Respect your affectionate Grand

Father Pierre Van Cortlandt
