My dear Sir,

Sickness in my family prevented me from leaving home as early as I intended. I hope I have not disarranged your plans, thereby. I can be with you for next week, six nights for one hundred dollars, several new pieces, &c. beginning Monday, Aug. 14th.

You had better put up John Jones & State Secrets, the two most popular pieces, for the first night; and we can do something quite new for the second night.

Please drop me a line, instantly, to let me know if this arrangement meets your views, as I must make other fixings should you decline.

I am, my dear Sir,
Yours truly

W. B. Burton
