- 1st — Resolved — That the Rev. Pierre P. Irving, having this day tendered his resignation of the Rectorship of this Church, we the Wardens and vestrymen thereof, while duly appreciating his motives, hereby declare that it is with sorrow that we have been made acquainted with the necessity of the dissolution of the connection existing between him and this Church, and we cannot too strongly express the deep regret of the Congregation at this event, every individual of which will long bear in remembrance the unremitting and disinterested zeal and fervent piety with which Mr. Irving has, for nearly seven years, discharged his arduous and responsible duties as our Pastor.
We assure him of our united wishes for his future welfare and prosperity, and we earnestly hope that he may long be enabled to continue his useful labors in the service of his divine Master.
