

Nov 14.

Dearest Brother

I presume before this settled down to your ~~box~~ in a fair way for making money every day looking anxiously for some to arrive that we may hear something from you. Sarah Paris and Catharine acquainted with some of the fashion.
Miss Schermerhorn called on them and them to spend an evening with the spent Saturday evening last with mean those that live in Greenwich. the girls were very much pleased and they are coming here that we met the Misses Ogden there on I have heard you speak of Emit some is Uncle went with them the they ~~that~~ were there he goes all with them. Sarah Davis went to at Mrs. Connetts it was given to the (Coster that was) Mrs. Collet and is called on them to day they themselves and invited them spend an evening sociably.

Kate still continues her music in they go to the Opera very frequently have not been for three weeks past have all very bad colds and the Donna whose name is Haute is very have now told you of Kate and Sarah ill tell you what I have been doing Blackwell had a party about a ago Julia, Mary, and myself went quite a large party there were upwards there they were all girls from Mrs. it was very pleasant Theodore went st. The children are invited to H. Duer say they are going to have a party not going as Julia had had a very bad cold, I am invited to a Friday at Miss Foster's one of my set tancel and Washington also but I ha determined yet whether I will go There is a Mr. Low that lives here of the one in the house in whi and if he is like this one very pleasant man.

that lives here in France he several evenings with us and who is a very nice little girl I must finish this beautiful and I am ashamed to send but no more time you must excuse the only time that I have is after and then I have to study my for the next day I thought the would not sail until Thurs day must have them ready by to mor is so dark that I cannot see wha writing but I could not let the sail without writing to you as now say good bye as I must go my letters, Mamma and all to send their love to you and same from you

Mr William Irving
Care of Russell & Co
Canton

Bank opening
Ship. Boston. July 19.
1834
Arrived Aug. 8.