My Dear Child

Your letter of the 5th ult. directed for me at Albany I received a few days ago. —

Having invariable thro' life preferred pecuniary sacrifices to even a risk of reputa-tion I am happy to find that the same sentiment prevails with you. — I shall accordingly discharge the debt to Scherlyn before the next Supreme Court, by which time I hope to collect a sufficient money for that purpose.

Mr Johnson has called on me, to discharge the debt to his brother, which I have promised to do immediately on my return to Albany not having wherewithal to do it here, he readily acquiesced. —

Mr James Abel of this city has applied home to purchase the lot in the poor lane, and offer £200. for it.

If you have not already sold it would it not be best to let him have it?

The Antislavery Union has prevailed in this City, for a number of Congress and members of Assembly, Berks county has also an Antislavery, and this last they have also succeeded in Lancaster. If they have the same success in Dutchess, their majority will be regular, as to enable them to oppose the Electors for the choice of a President of the U. States, - and Jefferson will probably be elected.

Your sister Thompson embarked yesterday we shall not leave this until Saturday or next week - may write me by the first mail, - Your mamma and all here are well and made in love to your Sally and the children. - I am my dear & kind your affectionate parent,

Reynolds

and made in love to her belly and the children.
I am my dear father your affectionate friend
