

Wednesday Evening
Honored Sir

I Received the Inclosed by Express from B^d James Livingston, which I now send to you by my Son Philip, Express. ~~you will~~ be from which you will be better Informed

The last Mob or Riot, here in the Manor was when, Devedgrass, J. Bishop. ~~of~~ Took out of possession, one Brady, on Coffin, Cortlands Land & put in Isaac Wright, Since which have heard nothing from the Eastward only am Credibly Informed that Devedgrass publicly Said by way of proclamation, that he Gave Dismissance to any officer or person that should molest or disturb any of his men at their pursuit ^{of} the wood.
Vindicate them at all Events. however believe his Interest here in the Manor

~~As I have~~ More than generally Expected; As a great many of these Turbulent fellows, only want opportunity. Either to be scolded, from paying any rents at all (or such as they say shall be Reasonable) - or from paying their Irish Debts - and do wish that Law never should take place - Am I Sir with the greatest Respect to you (and Livingston) I remain your Your affectionate Friendman &c.
Very Hum. Servt
