Rev. & Dear Sir

I have to apologize for not sooner transmitting to you the enclosed.
At a meeting of our Vestry about ten days since, I was instructed to remit it to you. I referred it for a day or two - and it escaped my attention entirely - until the return of Sunday re-
- minded me of you and of my omission -

Our Vestry requested me, in per-
- forming this agreeable duty, to express to you their warmest thanks for the kind manner in which you were pleased to yield to their request of supplying the place of our Pastor during his absence - and for the most faithful manner in which your duty as our temporary Pastor was performed -

You will please accept the

as an expression, however inadequate, of the feelings of grateful affection and respect with which they will ever remember your ministrations among us.

Handwritten text in a cursive script, likely a historical document or manuscript. The text is written in dark ink on aged, yellowed paper. The script is highly stylized and difficult to decipher, but appears to be organized into several vertical columns. The ink is somewhat faded, and the paper shows signs of wear and discoloration.
