

THOMAS MOORE TO SAMUEL ROGERS-MENTIONING WASHINGTON IRVING.

My Dear Rogers - I made a sad confusion about tomorrow - that made me hesitate ~~about~~ ⁱⁿ accepting your offer was a sort of hope that the ~~W. Irving~~ might ask me, as I have been unhappy about their invitations since I last came to town, and after all, I find that the whole time I have been enjoyed! Lord Essex! - so much for accuracy in his engagements.

Washington Irving has promised to write something also in the album day over.
