the Map was in possession of the Executors of P.V.C one of them and was not produced until 1816 the year after the partition took place and

1803 Pene Van Cortlandt made a Map describing South Lot No 1 containing 2225 Acres, of which 1000 Acres had been sold previous to 2nd May 1804 the time of making his Will in 1805 he did not acquire any more land in said lot No 1 1805 he made his Will and devised the land by bequeathing South Lot No 1 to his three Daughters (the lot or farm called the gift lot was a part of the original) 1811 he made a Codicil and without revoking the Will relative to the said Land, (the name of the said lot was a part of the original) he devised the said Land to his Son Pene and to the same his three daughters the daughters divided, ^{by lot - under} according to the Will 340 Acre fell to the lot of A V R & was released 360 do Cornelia Buckman do - 500 C V W and was released but an exception ^{of the Ash lot} was ^{inserted} in the release to C V W ~~of the Ash lot~~ ^{three quarters of the} Farm and ^{called the} Ash lot are necessary to make up the 500 Acre to C V W - it was all one tract of land except the ^{by the} Roads passing through it The deed of Release to C V W was entered on record about the ~~year 1876~~ January 2 1807 (in Liber S 212) in the ~~Office~~ Office of the County of West Chen.
