Ward solicitor in the above matter being duly sworn says, that, according to the best of his knowledge and belief, the several disbursements charged in the an-nexed bill of costs, have been actually & necessarily paid or incurred, that such bill of costs contain no charge for any draft, engrossment or copy of any pleading or other proceeding which has not been made, except where drafts have been used as copies or for any other service which has not been performed except such services as are allowed by law or by the practice of the Court to be taxed, & the number of folios contained in the draft or copies of any pleading or proceeding, are not over charged in such bill.

And the defendant further saith that the annexed bill of costs has been made out by him from an examination of the drafts & copies of the pleadings & proceedings in this matter & of the entries in the register of the said solicitor & from his own knowledge & such solicitor by reason of necessary absence from home, has not been able to make his own affidavit of the correctness of the charges in the said bill of costs to be annexed to the same, before the taxation thereof.
