Mr William Miller

I am very anxious to be at home, and if the River does not open by the middle of this week, I will take passage in the Stage & come down - so that you may expect me the last of this week - One of those Horses of William Walsh is lame in his hind foot which I suppose will always be so - I did not know this when I wrote you I then thought it was only swollen -

I believe I mentioned to you that Harrington has sold Edwin Colt, for $250 - He is about five miles from here but so wicked they cannot do any thing with him, which was the reason Harrington sold him -

I hope Bob behaves himself -

Your friend
Pierre vanportland
