

1069a

New York Sup Court

Robt Kenwood

ad

James Jackson

vs. diu. Gerard of Richmond

vs. Robt

Group Esq.

Group Esq.

Group Esq.

Read and filed, and judgment of Non suit October 20th 1791

Group atty

End

New York Supreme Court

Robert Wood

and

James Jackson &
deu. Gerard G. Richman

Exhibit for lands in Westchester County

1069c

Robert Wood the attorney for the defendant in the above cause maketh oath that this cause was at issue when the Circuit Court sat in Westchester County in the fall of the year one thousand seven hundred & ninety and the deponent for this verity that the said cause was noticed for trial as the last Circuit Court held for the County of Westchester that the same notice was undermanded on the twenty fifth day of August last past to the best of the deponent's recollection & belief that this deponent not meeting with any ~~opportunity~~ opportunity to inform the defendant who lives in the said County of Westchester of such countermand this deponent by reason thereof did not inform the defendant of the said countermand
and

the defendant attended accordingly at the said Circuit Court before the held in the said County of Kent Shepley on the thirteenth day of August last past with his wife I was sworn by the said cause

Sworn this 14th day of October 1931 before me Wm. Chandler Commissioner to take Affidavits to be read in the Supreme Court —

Wm. Chandler